

Instructor's Course Reflection

Course Name and Term

Instructor satisfaction with course, on a scale from 1-5

- 1-Very poor
- 2-Poor
- 3-Average
- 4-Satisfactory
- 5-Excellent

When will you teach this course again?

Overall impression of how your course went:

What went well in this course? How could you tell it was going well?

What did not go as well? How could you tell it was not going well?

What would you like to do differently next time?

Did student participation decrease at a particular point in the course? What was happening when it changed?

Were the students able to articulate their attainment of the CSLOs? Were there any specific CSLOs that need more attention next time?

Did any part of the course not meet your expectations? How, specifically, did it not meet them?

What did you enjoy most about this course? How can you do more of that next time?

What did you enjoy least about this course? How can you modify this for next time?

What do you know now that can help you make adjustments or changes?

Were there any questions about the course that more than one student asked that could be addressed in the course materials next time?

Do any activities need refinement for next time? Which ones? How will you modify them?

Do any assessments need refinement for next time? Which ones? How will you refine them?

What change would you like to see in your course climate or atmosphere? How can you bring about change?

What one activity, assignment, discussion, or assessment went especially well? Pinpoint the reasons why it went well. Could you model other activities on this success?

What one skill or ability would you like to develop more in order to strengthen your teaching ability?

Additional Notes:

Save this form for your own use.

Course assistance is available, if desired: <http://www.genesee.edu/home/offices/online/faculty-resources/>